

“STATES AND RTOs in CHANGING TIMES”

A PJM STATES ENVIRONMENTAL AND ENERGY REGULATORS WORKSHOP

Lexington, Kentucky

June 12, 2019

AGENDA

- 8:30 a.m. Breakfast Available/Networking
- 9:00 a.m. Welcome, Introductions
- 9:15 a.m. Keynote Address—Utility Perspective on Energy and Environmental Issues
- Dr. Talina Matthews, Commissioner, Kentucky Public Service Commission
- 10:00 a.m. Networking Break
- 10:15 a.m. Panel: Environmental Goals for States. Many states are setting ambitious environmental goals, including a number in PJM. The panel will discuss these goals and plans to achieve them.
- Moderator: Kate Konschnik, Nicholas Institute
 - Mike Dowd, Director of Air & Renewable Energy Division, Virginia Department of Environmental Quality
 - Sam Robinson, Deputy Chief of Staff, Office of Governor Tom Wolf
 - Chris Hoagland, Economist, Maryland Department of the Environment
- 11:30 a.m. Conversation on Affordable Clean Energy Rule and Other Air/Energy Issues, with leadership from NARUC and NACAA. There are many issues facing state regulators, from federal regulations, to rollback of environmental regulations, to regional transmission rules. This session will be a conversation to learn perspectives of individuals who head up large groups of state regulators.

- Moderator: Doug Scott, Great Plains Institute
- Miles Keogh, Executive Director, National Association of Clean Air Agencies
- Greg White, Executive Director, National Association of Regulatory Utility Commissioners

12:15 p.m.

Networking Lunch

1:00 p.m.

Keynote Address—PJM Market Rules and State Initiatives.

PJM has been attempting to address the impact on their market caused by state initiatives such as ZECs, causing some dispute between states and PJM. Mr. Peskoe will summarize the state of the law, options for harmonizing PJM markets and state policies, and the repercussions of failing to do so.

- Ari Peskoe, Director, Energy Law Initiative, Harvard Law School

1:30 p.m.

Panel: PJM Market Rules and State Initiatives. This diverse and experienced panel will look at a variety of issues facing states, RTOs and FERC, with a focus on carbon pricing and relations between states and RTOs around the country, particularly on resource adequacy.

- Moderator: Jennie Chen, Nicholas Institute
- Mason Emmett, Vice President, Competitive Market Policy, Exelon
- Asim Haque, Executive Director, Strategic Policy and External Affairs, PJM Interconnection
- Rob Gramlich, President, Grid Strategies
- Ruth Ann Price, Deputy Public Advocate, Delaware

3:15 p.m.

Concluding Remarks

3:30 p.m.

Adjournment