行政院環境保護署主管法規共用系統

列印時間:108.10.02 03:11

英譯法規內容

法規名稱(Title) :	Revised the title "Parties Subject to, Means of and Dates for Disposable Tableware Use Restrictions" to "Parties Subject to and Means for Disposable Tableware Use Restrictions", which takes effect immediately. Ch
公發布日(Date) :	2019.08.08
法規沿革 (Legislative):	1.Environmental Protection Administration, Executive Yuan Huan-Shu-Fei- Tzu No. 0950044991 on June 9, 2006 Stipulated and promulgated 2.Environmental Protection Administration, Executive Yuan Huan-Shu-Fei- Tzu No. 1080056916 on August 8, 2019 Revised announcement name and 4 points within the overall Announcement (Original name: Premises Subject to Restriction on Use of Disposable Tableware, Implementation Methods, and Implementation Date; New name: Premises Subject to Restriction on Use of Disposable Tableware and Implementation Methods)
法規內文 (Content) :	 I.Premises subject to use restrictions: (I)Public entities: Government authorities or enterprises, or private enterprises, that operate convenience stores, coope ratives, cafeterias, or other catering businesses for emplo yees, faculty, students, or patients in the following premi ses. 1.Government entities: Government entities include governme nt authorities (including military authorities and milita ry welfare supply stations), and state-owned enterprises. 2.Public schools. 3.Public medical institutions. (II)Private schools: Private schools or private enterprises th at operate convenience stores, cooperatives, cafeterias, or other catering businesses for employees, faculty, or stu dents in private schools. (III)Department stores and shopping centers: Department stores refer to retailers that sell multiple products in separa te departments on the same premises. Shopping centers refer to premises with integrated shopping, leisure, culture , entertainment, catering, exhibition, or information ser vice facilities. They include enterprises in the aforemen tioned department stores or shopping centers that provide vending or catering services. (IV)Hypermarkets: Hypermarkets refer to enterprises that provide wholesale or retail of a wide range of products, with w arehouse storage integrated with retail outlets. They incl ude enterprises in the aforementioned hypermarkets that pr ovide vending or catering services.

- (V)Supermarkets: Supermarkets refer to enterprises that provid e retail services for general household products and food, as well as fresh and packaged food products, including ente rprises that operate in the form of employee convenience st ores or cooperatives. They include enterprises in the afore mentioned supermarkets that provide vending or catering ser vices.
- (VI)Chain convenience stores: Chain convenience stores refer t o enterprises that provide convenient products such as fas t food, beverages, daily necessities, and service products to satisfy customers' immediate needs, and which operate as chain stores.
- (VII)Chain fast food restaurants: Chain fast food restaurants refer to enterprises that provide fast food, operate as c hain stores, conduct business operations within buildings or extending from buildings to arcades, sidewalks, or ot her public areas, and provide seats for customers to cons ume food onsite after ordering.
- (VIII)Eating and drinking establishments with storefronts: Eat ing and drinking establishments with storefronts refer t o enterprises that provide catering services, conduct bu siness operations within buildings or extending from bui ldings to arcades, sidewalks, or other public areas, and which provide seats for customers to consume food onsit e after ordering. They include restaurants and beverage stores. However, this provision shall not apply to cater ing stores (vendors) in public or private markets or nig ht markets.

II.Implementation methods for use restrictions:

- (I)The disposable tableware specified in the Announcement refe rs to tableware provided for catering consumers for one-tim e use, which is designed and produced as disposable items a nd which objectively cannot be cleaned and provided to cons umers for repeated use.
- (II)Premises subject to use restrictions may not provide dispo sable tableware made of plastic. The scope is as follows:
 - 1.Restaurants and other catering enterprises in public entit ies and private schools, catering enterprises department s tores and shopping centers, catering enterprises in hyperm arkets, catering enterprises in supermarkets, chain conven ience stores, chain fast food restaurants, and eating and drinking establishments with storefronts may not provide c ooked or prepared food, beverages, or seasoning in plastic cups, bowls, plates, dishes, or food boxes, or plastic fo od plates inside food boxes to consumers for use.

2.Convenience store, cooperatives, and other vendors in public entities and private schools, vendors in department stores and shopping centers, vendors in hypermarkets, and ven dors in supermarkets may not provide beverages or lunch boxes in plastic cups, food boxes, or plastic food plates in side food boxes to consumers for use.

3. The following plastic products are not included in the sco pe of restrictions:

(1)Lids, cup stands, and sealing film on paper cups.(2)Bowl lids.

(3)Food packaged in sealing film and placed on racks as pr oducts for display and purchase.

(III)Disposable tableware made of the following materials is n ot included within the disposable tableware made of plast ic specified in the Announcement:

1.Disposable tableware with primary materials based on paper , wood chips, sugarcane, common reeds, hemp, rice straw, s traw, rice hulls, and other plant fiber and made with plas tic coating, adhesive plastic film, or other physical meth ods with which plastic substances can be separated, provid ed that the weight of the plastic contents is lower than t en percent of the overall weight of the disposable tablewa re minus the weight of the lid.

2.Disposable tableware made from completely biodegradable ma terials.

 (IV)The following premises subject to the use restrictions may not provide disposable tableware made of plastic (includi ng cups, bowls, plates, dishes, food boxes, and plastic fo od plates inside food boxes) in accordance with section II
 (II) of the Announcement, and shall perform the following matters:

1.Government entities, cafeteria and other catering enterpri ses in private schools, department stores, shopping center s, and hypermarkets (excluding chain convenience stores an d chain fast food restaurants therein):

When they provide food on the premises for consumers to co nsume onsite, they may not provide disposable tableware ma de of any material (including cups, bowls, plates, dishes, food boxes, plastic food plates inside food boxes, chopst icks, spoons, knives, forks, and stirring sticks) and may not use tableware wrapped in plastic bags to serve food. 2.Department stores, shopping centers, and hypermarkets (exc luding chain convenience stores and chain fast food restau rants therein) shall perform the matters in the preceding item based on the dates proposed by the local competent au thorities and approved by the central competent authority.

- 3. The prohibition on disposable tableware made of any materi al specified in Item 1 does not include those that contain food and which are placed on racks as products for displa y and purchase.
- III.Cases where disposable tableware can be provided on a provis ional basis:
- (I)Under one of the following conditions, the local competent authorities may, to ensure food sanitation and safety and p revent the spread of diseases, allow certain or all governm ent entities, public schools, private schools, department s tores, shopping centers, and hypermarkets to provide dispos able tableware on a provisional basis within a specified pe riod of time, and report to the central competent authority for reference after granting approval:
 - 1.Regional drought or outbreak of contagious disease.
- 2. Where premises subject to the use restrictions cannot clea n the tableware due to failure of cleaning equipment or ot her reasons, and where application is made to the local co mpetent authority for provisional use of disposable tablew are within thirty-six hours of the occurrence of the cause that prevents cleaning of the tableware.
- (II)Where the scope of the drought or outbreak of contagious d isease specified in Item 1 of the preceding subparagraph h as spread across jurisdictions of multiple local competent authorities, the central competent authority may provide approval for all regions.
- IV.Penalties for violation of the Announcement: Entities in viol ation of the provisions in the Announcement shall be penalize d in accordance with Article 51, Paragraph 3 of the Waste Dis posal Act.

資料來源:行政院環境保護署主管法規共用系統